Gale Virtual Reference Library
http://elibraryusa.state.gov/databases/Gale%20Virtual%20Reference%20Library

Gale Virtual Reference Library contains 10 Business handbooks and encyclopedias, which can be found by clicking on Business in the subject list:

- Business Plans Handbook

    o Business Plans Handbook provides users with business plans that focus on obtaining funding for small businesses. The handbooks also provides sample plans focused on manufacturing, retail and service industries.

- CaseBase: Case Studies in Global Business

    o CaseBase provides case studies focused on emerging markets and industries around the world.

- Encyclopedia of Business Finance (2nd Edition)

    o The Encyclopedia of Business Finance provides information in five areas: finance and banking; accounting; marketing; management; and information systems. It provides reference and expertise from professionals and scholars.

- Encyclopedia of Emerging Industries (5th and 6th Edition)

    o The Encyclopedia of Emerging Industries provides information on new industries and technologies. It also discusses creative and innovative marketing strategies.

- Encyclopedia of Global Industries (4th and 5th Edition)

    o The Encyclopedia of Global Industries provides information on the most profitable industries in the world. Each profile provides the size, impact, history and structure of the industry.

- Encyclopedia of Management (6th Edition)

  o The Encyclopedia of Management provides information on many topics in the field of management theory and application. These topics include logistics, performance measurement and supply chain management.

- Encyclopedia of Small Business (3rd and 4th Edition)

  o The Encyclopedia of Small Business provides important information to entrepreneurs that can be applied to their own business.

Academic OneFile
http://elibraryusa.state.gov/databases/Academic%20OneFile

Academic OneFile has over 270 resources related to academic business and enterprise research. These periodicals can be used to give a background into issues related to business and enterprise.

One way to find these resources is to select the Subject tab and type "Business" (including the quotation marks) in the search box. The results will list Academic Journals, and you can find results for Magazines, Books, and News items as well. You can also search within results to find more on a specific topic, such as Business Enterprises.

You can also look for journals that cover law by clicking on Publication Search, then List All Publications. Under Limit Search by: Publication Subject, click More to find the subject of Business.

Business Source Premier
http://elibraryusa.state.gov/databases/Business%20Source%20Premier

Business Source Premier contains over 360 titles that cover business law. To find them, click on Publications, select By Subject & Description under the search box, then type Law and click Browse. Most of the titles only contain citations, but there are a number of full-text resources available.

To do a general search of all journals, use the Basic Search box to search Law. You will be able to narrow your search results by full-text, by date, and by source type. The Subject: Thesaurus Term will narrow your results by specific subject terms.

CQ Researcher
http://elibraryusa.state.gov/databases/CQ%20Researcher%20Online

CQ Researcher writes reports about important business topics such as Bankruptcy, Inflation and Small Business. Click on Browse Topics, then select Business and Economics to review all of the reports that CQ Researcher has published.

ebrary
http://elibraryusa.state.gov/databases/ebrary%20(includes%20e-Libro%20and%20e-Livro) ebrary has a number of full-text books on business topics. Type Business into the search box and press Search. You can then narrow your results by a number of subjects, such as Management or Business Planning. ebrary includes titles in Spanish and Portuguese as well.

For help downloading ebooks from ebrary, please read "How to use ebrary":
http://elibraryusa.state.gov/pdf/ebrary_guide.pdf